

Cultural Translator/Broker

My Sister's House began in 2000 as a public campaign to establish the organization as Sacramento's (in fact the Central Valley's) first agency to address domestic violence in the Asian and Pacific Islander community. Our mission is to serve Asian and Pacific Islander and other underserved women and children impacted by domestic violence, sexual assault and human trafficking by providing a culturally appropriate and responsive safe haven, job training and community services.

The Cultural Translator/Broker is hired by My Sister's House Executive Director and is directly accountable to the Executive Director. The Cultural Translator/Broker is responsible for assisting the Executive Director in addressing Sexual Assault by:

- Provide culturally specific and linguistically appropriate peer counseling and resources
- Serve as a liaison to the Asian Pacific Islander community in Yolo County and build partnerships with community members
- Provide psychological, physical and spiritual wellness support
- Promote My Sister's House activities and events

Qualifications:

- Asian Pacific Islander cultural knowledge or expertise in Yolo County
- Multilingual preferred
- Commitment to My Sister's House's mission and values.
- Experience working with diverse constituencies (particularly with communities of color).
- Strong communication skills including writing and public speaking abilities required. Conflict resolution skills are highly desirable.
- Valid driver's license and ability to use personal vehicle for work; proof of car insurance.
- Ability to work as part of a team.
- Must attend a 40 hour training in the fall
